

Natural Disaster Vocabulary Unit

Across

2. scientific term for hurricane
 7. energy that spreads out in the form of waves
 8. a force against another force
 9. groups; occurring closely together
 10. inside part

13. the region at the center of a hurricane about which the winds rotate, but which itself is relatively calm
 14. scientists who study the motion of Earth

Down

1. something that happens rarely or not often

3. ranked or classified
 4. where the plates form
 5. shock waves that come from the center of an earthquake
 6. to turn or bend
 11. power or force
 12. a piece of the earth's crust made of masses of rock