

Network Administration

Across

4. networks are created between two computers that connect directly to each other
 5. the collection of programs that run on hardware
 9. management and maintenance of networks within an organization, such as a school or business
 10. makes connections with many devices and then connects them to the network with a single port
 12. the physical equipment itself

13. makes connections between parts of the network or between the network and devices
 14. computing devices that help connect computers with other parts of a network
 15. part of the network that allows communication with other networks
 16. area of network administration that is concerned with how well the network is working

Down

1. runs the network and its software components, such as the firewall and antivirus program

2. telephones in a company as well as the computer network
 3. help keep viruses out of the network
 6. allows specific kinds of data into different parts of the network
 7. the act of trying to fix what is wrong in a system
 8. help keep out unwanted traffic and intruders
 11. routes data where it should go based on its destination

Word Bank

Gateway
 Antivirus programs
 Network performance management
 Software
 Peer-to-peer
 Servers

Hub
 Troubleshooting
 Switch
 Router
 Telecommunications

Network operating system
 Firewalls
 Network administration
 Bridge
 Hardware