

Neuro Crossword Puzzle

Across

3. A medical emergency, _____, is systolic hypertension with a widening pulse pressure and bradycardia
5. In an ischemic stroke _____ therapy should not be delayed
6. _____ is a state of acute mental confusion, it is common but can be life threatening.
7. Normal ICP is five to _____
9. the primary goal in stroke prevention is reduction of _____
11. Frequent assessment of the _____ system for a patient diagnosed with Guillain Barre is extremely important
13. _____ shock is characterized by decreased reflexes, loss and sensation, absent thermoregulation, and flaccid paralysis below the level of injury
14. Increased ICP is clinically significant because it decreases the CPP and increases the risk of _____ and infarction

18. _____ is the inability to close the eyelid with an upward movement of the eyeball when closure is attempted
20. Left sided stroke causes manifestations of impaired _____, impaired speech and language and slow performance
21. Parkinson's disease includes clinical manifestations of tremors, _____, akinesia, and postural instability
22. The main drug therapy for patients with a hemorrhagic stroke is management of _____

Down

1. _____ is a massive uncompensated CV reaction mediated by the sympathetic nervous system.
2. The three essential components inside the skull are brain tissue, blood and _____
4. _____ drugs are used to treat MS to modify disease progression and prevent relapses.

8. _____ risk factors include, hypertension, heart disease, diabetes mellitus, smoking and obesity
10. Osmotic diuretic given IV to decrease ICP
12. Treatment of patients in myasthenic crisis includes the use of _____ and IV IgG for short term improvement of symptoms.
15. _____ saline solution is used to manage increased ICP
16. The two main types of stroke are ischemic and _____
17. Drug alert for _____ includes assessing BP and apical pulse and hold if <60bpm or SBP <90
19. Right sided stroke causes manifestations of impulsiveness, and _____ judgement