

New Ideas for a Changing Nation

Across

7. what were workshops in tenements rather than in factories called?
8. what type of integration is classified by gaining more control of an industry by buying out competitors?
9. what were the laws used to regulate railroads?
10. what type of union was made of workers in a skilled trade?

Down

1. what are negotiations between labor and management called?

2. what was the concept that said that natural selection enabled the best-suited people and businesses to survive and succeed?
3. what type of integration is classified by gaining more control of an industry by buying out suppliers?
4. what were the documents employers would force workers to sign that made them swear not to join a union called?
5. what type of union included all workers, skilled and unskilled?
6. what was the method of settling disputes in which both sides submit their differences to a mutually approved judge called?