

New Province, New Culture, New Food!

Across

3. Meat pie dish, usually made with pork, veal or beef and potatoes
 6. Part of traditional culture in Quebec during the spring
 9. Classic comfort-food and originated in England to use up leftovers
 10. Starch that is converted to sugar during early spring

Down

1. Classic maple dessert, often served warm with vanilla ice cream

2. Kosher-style deli meat produce made by salting and curing beef brisket with spices
 4. Can be served with a variety of fillings, from the simplest with only sugar to elaborate savoury toppings
 5. Often soaked in eggs and milk, then fried.
 7. The most outstanding and renown meal in Quebec
 8. Dish served in a communal pot over a portable heated lamp