

Name: _____

Date: _____

Period: _____

Night By Elie Wiesel

Across

- 2. A movement to create a Jewish homeland in Palestine
- 5. Extremely thin; wasted away
- 7. Actions that flatter or entice
- 11. A small amount
- 13. Relating to Hasidism, a mystical Jewish movement founded in Poland in the 18th century in reaction to the rigid studying of Judaism
- 16. A person's facial expression
- 18. Like a mindless robot
- 19. A short stout club used primarily by policemen
- 20. The condition of being lost in thought; daydream

- 22. Small boxes containing scripture, worn by some Jewish men for daily prayer

- 23. A bottomless gulf of pit
- 25. Completely sealed; airtight
- 26. Burden
- 27. Ridicule or mockery
- 28. An eyeglass for one eye
- 29. Deeply religious

Down

- 1. Something illusory, without substance, or without basis in reality; an illusion
- 3. To cast (oneself) facedown in the ground in humility, submission, or adoration
- 4. A German philosopher who believed in a superman and rejected Christian values
- 6. Likely to cause disease

- 8. A place for worship of the Jewish faith
- 9. Anything that measures or indicates change
- 10. A severe test or trial
- 12. Endless; so long as to seem endless
- 14. Horrible or unpleasant
- 15. Severe diarrhea
- 17. A lack of feeling, emotion, or interest
- 21. Person recovering from sickness
- 24. Lack of the usual comforts of life