

No. 3

Across

1. having been pregnant two or more times
3. presence of blood in the seminal fluid
7. release of a mature ovum from a follicle on an ovary's surface
9. gland that produces sperm
10. production of breast milk in women who are not breastfeeding
11. evaluation scale of 1 to 10
15. inflammation of an ovary
16. inability to achieve or maintain an erection of the penis
21. most commonly reported STD in the U.S.A.
22. complication of pregnancy characterized by hypertension, edema and proteinuria
26. never having given birth to a viable child
27. surgical removal of uterine fibroids
28. rupture of an ovary
30. surgical fixation of prolapsed vagina to firm surrounding tissue

33. serving no useful purpose: completely ineffective

35. glands located just below the prostate gland
36. temporary organs that form within uteri to connect unborn children to their mothers
37. pertaining to lifeline between unborn child and its mother
38. pertaining to an unborn child from 9th weeks to birth

Down

2. highly contagious STD infection caused by neisseria gonorrhoeae
4. first pregnancy
5. combining form meaning anus
6. having given birth to viable children two or more times
8. sensitive tip of penis
12. decrease in male hormone production, usually in late 40s
13. when a male is healthy and able to produce viable sperm

14. pertaining to the female who is capable of conception and pregnancy

17. developing unborn child from implantation thru 8 weeks of pregnancy
18. region between the scrotum and the anus
19. dark-pigmented area surrounding the nipple
20. premenstrual _____ disorder: severe emotional/physical problems during menses
23. cyst in epididymis filled with milky fluid and sperm
24. exfoliative biopsy of the cervix named after the Greek Dr. who devised it
25. intermittent painless uterine contractions that are not true labor pains
29. tissue of the region between the vulva and the anus
31. repair of an undescended testicle into the scrotum
32. out of place
34. gland surrounding the male urethra