

No, No, No Vocab Crossword

Across

- 7. v. to not do what was promised by going back on your word
- 10. v. when someone goes against whatever someone else is saying because they disagree with them
- 11. n. a feeling of strong hatred towards something or someone
- 12. adj or n. an action or behavior that goes against one that is expected
- 13. adj. describes conditions, usually in weather, that are severe, harsh, or unpleasant
- 14. v. to not give something or someone the proper attention or care that is needs
- 15. n. when someone is upset or angered by something insulting or unjust

- 18. n. a medicine or remedy given to counteract poison
 - 19. adj. when something is permanent and cannot be removed, erased, or washed away
- Down
- 1. adj or n. someone who chooses not to follow the laws or customs of society
 - 2. adj. someone who does not make choices or set decisions easily
 - 3. v. to violate a rule by going against it or around it
 - 4. n. when you want something, and you end up getting the opposite of what you hoped or expected
 - 5. adj or n. an opponent, especially in literature or drama

- 6. n. when you feel this towards someone or something, you are indifferent or uninterested because you don't care
- 8. adj. an individual who lives without concern for right and wrong
- 9. adj or n. someone who does not believe in, or denies the existence of, God
- 16. adj. someone who is considered guilty of habitual neglect
- 17. adj. someone who avoids the company of other people, or cannot interact normally with others