

Non-Fiction Vocabulary

Across

- 1. a picture that is taken with a camera
- 5. captions, headings, diagrams, photographs, table of contents, glossary
- 8. pictures and other images that accompany a piece of text to enhance its meaning
- 10. a statement in the text that can be proven
- 11. a drawing or graphic that is labeled to show the parts or how something works

- 15. a non-fiction passage that informs the reader about a topic

- 17. a genre that is written to explain something

- 18. a short retell of the important ideas

Down

- 2. a story about a real person written by a different person
- 3. the whole passage or article
- 4. the reason the writer wrote the article

- 6. when something happens as a result of something else (clue word: because)

- 7. a important part of the text that supports the main idea

- 9. what the article is mostly about

- 12. using background knowledge and text evidence to make a guess

- 13. the subject of the article or passage

- 14. a part of of the passage

- 16. the text with a photograph that gives the reader more information about the photograph

Word Bank

- |                  |                 |               |           |                  |
|------------------|-----------------|---------------|-----------|------------------|
| infer            | graphic feature | fact          | article   | topic            |
| caption          | detail          | section       | selection | author's purpose |
| expository       | summary         | biography     | diagram   | main idea        |
| cause and effect | photograph      | text features |           |                  |