

Name: _____

Non-Linguistic Representation

Across

5. Describes what the area is in common

9. Type of economy where everything is based on tradition

10. Where a place is by using distance, direction, and landmarks

11. Factories, machinery, and technology used to produce goods and services

12. People, goods, and ideas moving

13. Type of economy where the people decide on everything

15. Someone who takes risks and creates a business

16. A limit on the amount of goods imported

Down

1. type of economy where people decide and government controls some

2. Coordinates

3. The number of people in an area that can read and write

4. People that perform labor

6. Type of economy where government controls all

7. Where a place looks like by describing land-forms and man-made buildings

8. When a country cannot trade with anyone

14. Taxes on imported goods