

Name: _____

Not for the faint hearted

Across

- 2. Although Electronic equipment is covered on an all risk basis it will generally only be covered at the _____ stated on the schedule.
- 5. What Clause will protect the insured if he is the Owner of the property?
- 11. The acronym used for additional cost of working.
- 12. Cover which excludes theft and accidental damage and available as a discounted premium is a _____ cover.
- 14. How many microns must the smash and grab safety film be, to be considered compliant?
- 16. The _____ peril is automatically covered under the electronic equipment section

17. When only a part of an item has been damaged and can be repaired, it is referred to as a _____.

19. If a client owns 20 computers but only wants cover for 10 what specific condition will apply in the event of a claim.

20. A 12 hour time excess is applicable to accidental failure of Telkom and _____ supplies.

Down

1. An optional cover which can be included for the loss of data due to an insured event, is known as

3. Who will OUT pay first of the insured item is on Hire Purchase?

4. The value of the exchangeable part in relation to its lifespan, is referred to.

6. An additional peril to ensure that new or replacement equipment is compatible with the insured's existing systems.

7. A physical loss or damage due to a defined event in Sub-section A

8. In the event of a claim with multiple items and multiple excesses, the excess payable will be the _____ amount.

9. If the insured has used a lightning and/or power surge protection to prevent further damage during a power surge and/or lightning the excess will be

10. Cover for Riots and Strikes in Namibia?

13. What period is only applicable to Increased Cost Of Working.

15. If the insured has building cover under the Fire section with OUT and his Electronic Equipment is covered with Discovery, how will we treat the Fire Brigade Costs?

18. Insured's laptop is stolen from the canopy of his bakkie in a loading area we will pay the claim. True/False