

Notes from the Midnight Driver

Across

- 3. To cut the head off of a person, thing, or animal
- 5. lack of harmony among musical notes
- 8. strike with a firm blow, attacked or be affected severly
- 11. put an end to typically by the use of force
- 12. the descendants of a person
- 14. developed certain abilities or proclivities at an earlier age than usual:
- 17. required by law or a rule; obligatory

- 18. heavily loaded or weighed down
  - 19. a cluster, a disorderly noisy group of people
  - 20. gradually spread through or over
- Down
- 1. beyond or above the range of normal or merely physical human experience
  - 2. be repeated several times as an echo or vibrate
  - 4. the crime of driving a vehicle with an excess of alcohol in the blood.

- 6. strange or mysterious especially in an unsettling way
- 7. Physically and mentally impaired by the use of alcohol
- 9. an official order or commission to do something
- 10. neatly skillful and quick in one's movements
- 13. relating to or affected by muscle spasm
- 15. the killing of a large number of people
- 16. move without interruption from one song, melody, or scene to another