

Name: _____

Date: _____

November Vocab

Across

- 3. To reject with contempt
- 6. Genuine ; real ; sincere
- 7. Disdainfully or ironically humorous ; scornful and mocking
- 10. Polite and refined ; courteous
- 12. To place side by side (for contrasting effect)
- 13. Designed or intended to teach (often in moral instruction)

- 14. In an open and observable manner ; not secretly
- 15. Sociable ; enjoying of other peoples' company or discourse

Down

- 1. Shortness of time ; the use of concise writing or speech
- 2. An indication of the approach of something or someone

- 4. Departing from an accepted standard ; markedly different from the norm
- 5. Widely accepted, favored, or practiced
- 8. Unwilling or unable to believe something
- 9. A witty remark
- 11. Having a clear mind ; expressed clearly and/or easily understandable

Word Bank

- | | | | | |
|-----------|-----------|-------------|------------|----------|
| lucid | Overtly | Didactic | quip | sardonic |
| Bona fide | prevalent | harbinger | Gregarious | urbane |
| juxtapose | Brevity | incredulous | Aberrant | spurn |