

Name: _____

Date: _____

Nursing Process

Across

4. The values, beliefs, and practices of a particular group
7. Body language using facial expressions, posture, gestures, and body movement
10. Phase that is the period during which tasks are performed
11. Performs health-related activities that cannot be performed independently
13. Partial loss of the ability to produce language
15. Communication that use words and gestures to accomplish a particular objective

17. Using vocal sounds that are not actually words

18. Phase that the period when the relationship comes to an end

Down

1. An Association between a nurse and patient where the desired outcome is restored health
2. A progressive, deteriorating brain disease; memory loss is classic symptom.
3. Which proximics is 6 inches to 4 feet?
5. Is a defect in, or loss of, the ability to speak, write, sign, or of the ability to comprehend speech and communication

6. Works with others to achieve a common goal

8. An exchange of information

9. Communication that uses words

12. A means of transmitting the idea

14. Phase that is the initial contact; preconceived ideas are confirmed or dismissed

16. When interacting with a patient what type of questions to you want to use?