

Name: _____

Date: _____

OBYN

Across

- 3. The surgical incision of perineum to enlarge the vaginal opening and prevent tearing of the perineum and muscles during delivery
- 5. Incision of a closed cavity with the suturing of the opened edges to the wall of the wound to form an open wound that will heal by second incision.
- 8. The area between the posterior portion of the vagina or scrotum and the opening to the anus
- 13. Loop electrosurgical excision
- 14. Surgical transverse incision made in the lower abdomen, usually employed when performing a C-section
- 15. finger-like structures that form on an edge, such as the fimbria of the Fallopian tubes.

- 16. Intrauterine position of a fetus in which the buttocks or feet present first
- 17. A benign fibroid tumor of the uterus
- 18. A band of fibrous tissue composed of collagen that connects bone to bone.
- 19. Appendages or accessory structures of an organ
- 20. Removal of tissue with a blunt or sharp curette by scraping the surface.
- 21. The most common relationship between the presenting fetal part and the maternal pelvis

Down

- 1. Difficult labor due to various reasons, such as cephalopelvic distortion, fetus size, or condition or position of fetus.

- 2. D.U.B
- 4. The classification used to indicate the number of live and stillborn births that a female has delivered at more than 20 weeks of gestation
- 6. An opening that serves as the entrance to a passageway
- 7. A surgical Procedure in which the abdomen and uterus are incised to deliver a baby
- 9. Refers to the total removal of
- 10. lips
- 11. Refers to the pregnant female
- 12. Abnormal communications between two normally separate internal structures or an abnormal communication between an internal structure and the body surface.