

Old Testament Books of the Bible - Part 2

Across

4. This Prophet warned the people of Judah about God's coming judgment and the coming restoration and blessing that will come through repentance
6. A person of considerable social standing in Judah and was probably related to the royal line
9. Captures the major events during Israel's exile. His life and visions point to God's plans of redemption and sovereign control of history
12. The focal point of the entire book is the Lord's judgment on Nineveh for her oppression, cruelty, idolatry, and wickedness.
13. This Prophet prophesied during the reigns of Uzziah over Judah and Jeroboam

15. Consists of a series of poetic and powerful laments over the destruction of Jerusalem

16. Like Jeremiah and Ezekiel, was not only a prophet, but also a member of a priestly family

Down

1. A prophet who, along with Zechariah, encouraged the returned exiles to rebuild the temple
2. This Prophet prophesied sometime between 750 and 686 B.C. during the reigns of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah
3. This Prophet lived in the tragic final days of the northern kingdom. His life served as a parable of God's faithfulness to an unfaithful Israel
5. A contemporary of Jeremiah and a man of vigorous faith

7. The theological message of the book can be summed up in one sentence: The Great King will come not only to judge his people, but also to bless and restore them
8. Prophet whose personal life and struggles are shown to us in greater depth and detail than those of any other Old Testament prophet
10. God's initiative and control expressed more clearly and pervasively than in any other old testament book
11. This Prophet warned the proud people of Edom about the impending judgment coming upon them
14. A narrative account of his mission to the city of Nineveh, his resistance, his imprisonment in a great fish, his visit to the city, and the subsequent outcome
