

Name: _____ Date: _____

Older Adults and Patients with Special Healthcare or Functional Needs 2

- | | |
|--|-----------------------------|
| 1. A guide dog, signal dog, or other animal individually trained to provide assistance to a person with a disability | A. Cognitive Impairment |
| 2. A group of disorders characterized by some degree of impairment in communication and social interaction as well as repetitive behaviors | B. Autism Spectrum Disorder |
| 3. A degree of hearing loss that is mild enough to allow a person to continue to rely on hearing for communication | C. Edema |
| 4. Swelling in body tissues caused by fluid accumulation | D. Dementia |
| 5. A disorder on the autism spectrum | E. Hospice care |
| 6. A collection of symptoms caused by any of several disorders of the brain; characterized by significantly impaired intellectual functioning that interferes with normal activities and relationships | F. Bereavement care |
| 7. Impairment of thinking abilities including memory, judgment, reasoning, problem solving, and decision making | G. Asperger syndrome |
| 8. Care provided in the final months of life to a terminally ill patient | H. Service Animal |
| 9. Diseases that occur gradually and continue over a long period of time | I. Chronic disease |
| 10. Care provided to families during the period of grief and mourning surrounding a death | J. Hard of Hearing |