

Name: _____

Date: _____

On My Honor

Across

- 6. to inhale suddenly out of pain or astonishment
- 7. A flow of electricity, air or water in a specific direction
- 11. to imitate someone, their actions or words.
- 14. full of energy, excitement or cheerfulness
- 16. to torment, jeer, mock, insult
- 17. random, disorganized, unplanned, slipshod
- 18. unsmiling, serious, grave, grim

- 19. to flounder, wave, swing or thrash about

- 20. to seize and hold firmly, to comprehend

Down

- 1. vertical, abrupt, perpendicular
- 2. shockingly bad, disgraceful or horrendous
- 3. impetus or drive, force, thrust or push
- 4. to hold to a standard, do what is right, keep your word.

- 5. very hot day, a hard thrown ball or a remarkable or extreme example of something

- 8. to meet someone unexpectedly or be faced with something difficult or hostile unexpectedly.

- 9. in a detailed and carefully arranged manner

- 10. an aim, purpose or intent

- 12. joyful, triumphant, rejoicing.

- 13. a short journey or trip

- 15. thinly distributed, scattered or scant

Word Bank

- | | | | | |
|-----------|----------|-------------|--------|------------|
| haphazard | jaunt | outrageous | solemn | sheer |
| encounter | jubilant | elaborately | sparse | gasp |
| scorcher | flailing | taunt | grasp | exuberance |
| current | mimic | intention | Honor | momentum |