

Name: _____

Date: _____

Oncology Labs

Across

4. The percentage of RBCs in the blood. When low, it is called anemia

8. Type of tumor marker that if present can be a sign of colorectal, ovarian, lung, thyroid, or liver cancer

9. A type of tumor marker that can aid in the diagnosis of neuroendocrine tumor

10. Chemicals made by tumor cells that can be detected in blood

Down

1. Used

2. Presence of low levels of platelets, can be a side effect of chemotherapy

3. A protein in blood. If elevated can be a sign of ovarian cancer

5. Also known as thrombocytes

6. This type of blood cell aids to fight infection. Can be decreased due to the effects of chemotherapy or as a result of the cancer

7. A type of tumor marker blood test that can be used to detect prostate cancer if elevated