

Name: _____

Date: _____

Period: _____

One is Only as Good as His or Her Word

Across

4. who is the main character in the book?

6. a figure of speech by which a phrase produces seemingly self-contradictory effect, as in "cruel kindness" or "to make haste slowly."

8. a figure of speech in which a term or phrase is applied to something to which it is not literally applicable in order to compare items

10. A word representing a sound, "Meow", "BANG"

11. A figurative term that is not mean to be taken literally but figuratively, in a certain way. For example, "It was raining cats and dogs" This means it was raining really strongly, not that it was raining animals

12. A form of figurative language in which a non-living object is given a trait only a living organism would be able to feel

Down

1. an incidental mention of something, either directly or by implication

2. the repetition of consonant sounds through the beginning of adjacent words

3. a figure of speech that compares two items using "like" or "as"

5. a large fragment of obvious and intentional exaggeration

7. The practice of using symbols to express ideas

9. a figurative form of speech in the form of an address to someone not present, or to a unreal object or idea