

Name: _____

Date: _____

Open-Minded

Across

3. If someone offers a conflicting _____, they take it in and use it to refine their own rather than dismiss it.

7. Open-mindedness is a matter of _____.

8. When someone says they're wrong, they don't get _____.

9. They're not afraid of their _____ being challenged.

10. Instead, they're _____ about why there is disagreement.

Down

1. They ask _____ questions and focus on what they don't know rather than proving themselves right.

2. When the truth is not what they want it to be, they don't fight it but take out the _____ they need to turn things around.

4. They understand reality is too complex for one individual to fully make sense of and feel compelled to _____ things through other's eyes.

5. They ask more questions than they make statements and _____ others to voice their views so they can embrace them in their own.

6. People with an open mind believe objective truth is _____ for progress and are willing to go the extra mile to find it.