

Name: _____

Date: _____

Oral Pathology

Across

- 2. Inflammation of connective tissue
- 4. Malignant tumor in epithelial tissue
- 5. Informal name for the rampant tooth decay caused by heavy meth use
- 7. Closed cell with a definite wall
- 8. A growth
- 11. Small pinpoint red spots on the skin or mucous membrane
- 17. Removal of tissue from living patients for diagnostic examination
- 20. A progressive disease where the bone marrow produces an increased number of abnormal white cells
- 21. Wearing away of tissue
- 23. Continuous injury to tissue
- 24. Protective response of tissues to irritation

- 25. Malignant tumor in connective tissue such as muscle or bone
- 27. Malignant disorder of the lymphoid tissue
- 28. Benign chronic disease that affects the skin and oral mucosa
- 29. Inflammation of the tongue

Down

- 1. To spread from one part of the body to another
- 3. Dryness of the mouth caused by reduction of saliva
- 6. Abnormal growths of bone in a specific area
- 9. Swelling or mass of blood collected in one area or organ
- 10. Bruising
- 12. Short lasting injury to tissue
- 13. An area of pathology

- 14. Disorders that are present at birth
- 15. Formation of white spots on the oral mucosa
- 16. Disease or swelling of the lymph nodes
- 18. Potent central nervous system stimulant
- 19. The study of diseases
- 22. Superficial infection caused by a yeastlike fungus
- 26. Area of pus originating from an infection