

Organisms and Their Environment

Across

- 2. a group of organisms of one species that live in the same place at the same time.
- 3. a living thing
- 9. large group of ecosystems that share certain characteristics.
- 10. the study of interactions that take place between organisms and their environment.

11. part of the Earth that supports life

13. variety of life in an ecosystem

14. an organism's place of survival

Down

1. number of individuals of a particular species that the environment can normally support

4. made up of interacting communities.

5. living things

6. made up of interacting populations.

7. non-living things

8. group of organisms that are able to reproduce and have fertile offspring

12. the role an organism plays in its environment