

Overview of Memory

Across

1. Difficulty in recalling information when other memories get in the way.
3. The general setting or environment in which activities happen.
11. Bartlett found people changed this in his study.
14. Making sense of something unfamiliar after it has happened is effort after...
15. Memory store that holds information received from the senses for a very short period of time.

17. Recovering information from storage.

Down

2. Where Murdock's serial position curve study took place.
4. 25% of participants believed they were lost in one.
5. The participants in the context study were all?
6. Unique memories which are concerned with personal experiences or events.
7. In the War of the Ghosts study canoes were changed to?
8. Remembering something that has never happened

9. When more of the first information received is recalled than subsequent later information.

10. Who could play piano but not remember his music education?
12. The way that information is represented to be stored.
13. The psychologists who worked on false memory research with Pickrell
16. Two memories are more likely to get mixed when they are...