

Name: _____

Date: _____

PERSONALITY CROSSWORD

Across

- 4. aims to discover and promote strengths and virtues that enable individuals and communities to thrive POSITIVE
- 7. giving priority to goals of one's group (i.e. family)
- 8. the most widely researched and clinically used of all personality tests. Originally developed to identify emotional disorders
- 9. perceiving control over your environment rather than feeling helpless PERSONAL

- 11. the center of personality, the organizer of our thoughts, feelings, and actions
- 12. the thought that you control your own fate
- 13. giving priority to one's own goals over group goals
- 14. presuming a spotlight shines on us SPOTLIGHT

Down

- 1. views behavior as influenced by the interaction between people's traits (including their thinking)
- 2. used to assess selected personality traits

- 3. the thought that chance or outside forces beyond your personal control determine your fate
- 5. interacting influences of behavior, internal cognition, and environment
- 6. a readiness to perceive oneself favorably
- 10. the center of personality, the organizer of our thoughts, feelings, and actions
- 15. the most widely researched and clinically used of all personality tests. Originally developed to identify emotional disorders EMPIRICALLY DERIVE