

Name: _____

Date: _____

PHLEBOTOMY

1. competent person gives permission after receiving info about risk, methods, and consequences of a procedure
 2. patient's actions give permission w/o written or verbal- ER or sticking out arm for a draw
 3. Multi-draw needle
 4. Winged Infusion Set
 5. post-prandial
 6. Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996
 7. test to detect blood in feces, most common type of FOBT/fecal occult blood test
 8. no light to lab in <30 min close to body temp as possible
 9. blood 4mm on slide close to frosted edge using another slide, 30 degree angle smooth action forward, want a feathered edge
 10. Easiest and most effective way to break chain of transmission
 11. A widely used abbreviation for Material Safety Data Sheet. contains details of the hazards associated with a chemical, and gives information on its safe use.
 12. a small red or purple spot caused by bleeding into the skin -rupture of capillaries due to tourniquet being on too long
 13. inflammation of a vein -due to repeated venipuncture to a vein
 14. A birth defect that causes an amino acid called phenylalanine to build up in the body. Untreated PKU can lead to brain damage, intellectual disabilities, behavioral symptoms, or seizures.
- A. Hemocult test
 - B. hand washing
 - C. MSDS
 - D. implied consent
 - E. Semen Collection
 - F. after a meal
 - G. HIPPA
 - H. Phlebitis
 - I. butterfly needle
 - J. PKU
 - K. same needle, 1+ tube
 - L. Blood Smears
 - M. informed consent
 - N. Petechiae