

(PIT) Lifelong Learning Skills

Across

4. an education that involves learning goals established by the learner

9. a goal that is intended to be accomplished in a longer period of time, such as a semester or a year

11. the participation in activities that enhance or improve awareness of self, develop skills, build employability, improve quality of life, and help a person figure out dreams and goals

12. an education that involves learning goals established by a training or learning department

13. the positive end result of where effort is directed

Down

1. courses offered by higher-education institutions that generally pertain to your career field

2. a desirable or useful quality that you already possess

3. a type of learning that is done on your own

5. a goal related to one's career

6. a type of education that focuses on skills and knowledge that will be used in the workplace, and connects current knowledge and skills to a student's future employment

7. a goal that can be accomplished in the near future, such as in a day, week, or month

8. continued pursuit of knowledge for either personal or professional reasons

10. an evaluation tool used to determine a person's personality type, which can be used for for career planning purposes

Word Bank

personal and professional asset

self-directed learning:

personality test

lifelong learning

short-term goal

formal learning

long-term goal

goal

work-based learning

professional goal

personal growth

informal learning

continuing education