

POLS 201: Crossword Chapters 8-11

Across

4. one role of the president ,through which he or she represents the country symbolically and politically.
7. A _____ is a member of Congress who loyally represents constituents' direct interests.
9. What is an elected position for which there is no incumbent ?
10. the elected leader of the House of Representatives
11. What do we call the two-year period between general elections?
13. a ballot vote in which citizens select a party's nominee for the general election.

14. the inability to enact legislation because of partisan conflict within Congress or between Congress and the president.

15. An _____ is an organization of people who share common political interests and aim to influence public policy

Down

1. _____ is the tactics employed within Washington, D.C., by interest groups seeking to achieve their policy goals.
2. an interest group that has large numbers of due-paying individuals as memebers

3. the _____ is when the voters cast ballots for House members, senators, and a president and vice president.

5. A _____ ballot on which a voter selects candidates from more than one political party

6. A _____ is a primary election in which any registered voter can participate in the contest, regardless of party affiliation.

8. the movement of individuals from government positions to jobs with interest groups or lobbying firms, and vice versa.

12. these donations are used to help elect or defeat a specific candidate