

POTTERY CROSSWORD PUZZLE

Across

- 3. The quality of clay which allows it to be manipulated into different shapes without cracking or breaking
- 5. The temperature at which the clay becomes hard and durable
- 6. Mixture of Kaolin, flint and water
- 8. A small observation hole in the wall or door of a kiln
- 9. Non-transparent glaze, it covers the clay or glaze beneath it

Down

- 1. A device with either a manual or an electric rotating wheel head used to sit at and make pottery forms
- 2. Firing with a full supply of oxygen
- 4. A dull glaze surface, not very reflective when fired
- 7. Stage of clay between plastic and bone dry
- 10. A machine for mixing clay and recycling clay

Word Bank

- |           |                |              |               |
|-----------|----------------|--------------|---------------|
| Oxidation | Plasticity     | Leather Hard | Potters Wheel |
| Kiln Wash | Maturing Point | Pug Mill     | Matt Glaze    |
| Peephole  | Opaque Glaze   |              |               |