

PSSA Math

Across

- 4. highest extreme or largest number in a set of data
9. an algebraic sentence with no equal sign
10. numbers multiplied together to get a product
11. number sentence or algebraic sentence that compares two quantities using specific symbols
13. answer to a division problem
15. the multiplier of a number, or inverse of a number, to give a product of 1 when multiplied with the original number

Down

- 1. lowest extreme or smallest number in a set of data
2. an algebraic sentence with an equal sign
3. a data point that is distinctly separate or far away from the set of other values
5. distance a number is from zero, also referred to as absolute value
6. a number placed in front of a variable that is meant to be multiplied with that variable

- 7. a number that stands on its own in an algebraic expression or equation
8. point on a graph where the x-axis and y-axis intersect and both coordinates are zero
12. points in which a set of data are separated into four groups in box-and-whisker plots
14. numbers and variables that are separated by addition or subtraction signs in algebraic expressions