

Palliative care

Across

3. How often can midazolam be given?

8. If eGFR is between 30-60 which opiate is safer to use?

9. What medication used for nausea and vomiting can also be used for agitation?

11. Is there a maximum dose of Opiate that can be given in 24 hours?

12. What's maximum length of time you should wait before reviewing symptoms, in hours?

13. What is the maximum millimetres of syringe that can be used in a T34 pump?

14. How long after an intervention would you review effectiveness, in minutes?

Down

1. What opiate based medication can be given for pain?

2. What's the preferred route of administration of medication once the oral route is not available?

4. If eGFR is below 30 which opiate is safest to use?

5. What medication can be used to help with terminal secretions?

6. What non-opiate medication can be given for breathlessness?

7. What opiate based medication can be given for breathlessness?

10. What medication can be given for agitation?