

Parenting: A Rewarding Choice

Across

- 3. A condition of differing from one another
- 5. All that has been passed down through the generations
- 6. The beliefs people have that help them discern between right and wrong
- 9. A person who gives birth to offspring
- 12. Knowledge of developmental skills children have at a certain age
- 13. Set behavioral limits (home rules) that teach children how to get along in the world
- 14. Set of behaviors related to a certain function you assume in life

- 17. Members of ethnic or cultural groups have shared customs, beliefs, and behaviors
- 18. The way a person views himself or herself as a member of a particular ethnic group
- 19. Act or process of raising a child

Down

- 1. Gradual and reflects a child's understanding of the difference between right and wrong
- 2. Loving care and attention
- 4. Tension caused by a condition or situation that demands a mental or physical adjustment

- 7. Sets no conditions or boundaries
- 8. Refers to the role of parenting in society
- 10. Being ready and able to adapt to new and different circumstances
- 11. Groups of people with a common racial, national, tribal, religious, or cultural origin or background
- 15. A half-true or untrue story or notion used to explain certain traditions, practices, or beliefs
- 16. A deep level of continued commitment