

Name: _____

Date: _____

Pathophysiology of Aging

Across

4. enlargement of the alveolar duct results in an increased _____
6. the number of cells in the body does this as a person ages
7. skin loses _____
10. movement of time _____
11. Total body fat as we age _____
13. a prolonged respiratory time slows the response to _____ and _____

Down

1. An S4 sound is a sign of _____
2. in the lungs the residual capacity increases while the _____ decreases
3. A nurse must use careful assessment _____ to prevent an older adult from rapidly decompensating.
5. older adults have more trouble with respiratory secretions because the secretions are more _____

8. Aging causes the heart muscle to lose efficiency and contractile _____
9. changes in the respiratory system put older adults at higher risk for _____
12. In the GI system the small a large intestines begin to _____ with age.