

Pathophysiology of Gout

Across

- 2. Gout can be treated with _____ changes.
- 5. What causes local inflammation that occurs after the first attack of gout?
- 6. _____ factors can play a role in uric acid and crystal formation.
- 10. Inadequate _____ excretion can cause uric acid and crystals to form.

- 11. What medication, typically for cancer, can cause uric acid and crystals to form?
- 12. Where are deposits of uric acid and crystals mostly placed in the body?
- 13. Use of _____ prior to blood tests will cause a false-negative result.
- 14. What type of abnormality can cause uric acid and crystals to form?

Down

- 1. What is examined to diagnose Gout?
- 3. What is another name for Gout?
- 4. _____ causes redness, swelling, and pain.
- 7. Gout results from deposits of _____ and crystals in the joint.
- 8. What is a large hard nodule of urate crystals called?
- 9. Gout can be diagnosed by what kind of test?