

Name: _____

Date: _____

Patient Care Coordination and Education Groups

Across

7. Sometimes referred to as vocational nurses.

8. Have similar training to physicians and are licensed to practice medicine as long as they are supervised by a medical doctor

9. Are licensed by individual states and have an associate or bachelors degree in nursing,

Down

1. Have more education and experience than RNs, and can usually perform the same tasks as a physician assistant.

2. Diagnosis and treats conditions in specific areas of expertise

3. Assist and educate patients on how to perform everyday life after physical, mental, or developmental disability has occurred.

4. Prepare and dispense medications prescribed by authorized providers.

5. The first provider the patient seeks care from.

6. Assess a patient's pain, strength, and mobility and then develops a treatment plan to improve any areas of concern

10. Diagnose and treat issues relating to the teeth and or mouth