

Name: _____

Patient assessment

Across

2. Observations made and information acquired by a healthcare practitioner determined to be relevant to the identified problem(s) is called?
4. toward the tail/rear is called?
5. This Uses the AVPU scale to determine the patients level of consciousness?
8. Normal B/P is?
11. the extent to which a patient takes medications as prescribed is called?
12. Abnormally low heart rate, <60 bp is considered?
14. Deficiency of red blood cells is called?
15. Injury or illness that require immediate attention is called?

16. touching and feeling body parts with the hand to augment the data gathered through inspection; second step in the physical examination process is called?
18. the _____ method of documenting a patients progress is the most common. the letters represent the order in which progress is noted as each complaint or problem is addressed
19. Disorder causing a diminished volume of circulating blood is called?
20. pertaining to the back or posterior is called?

Down

1. At minimum: Gloves for every patient contact. - Goggles, Gown, mask. What is this called?:

3. Systemic wasting of muscle tissue, with or without loss of fat mass, that accompanies a chronic disease
6. between two things/ nearer portion Is called?
7. Pertaining to the front or anterior Is called?
9. any action directed toward promoting health and preventing the occurrence of disease is called?
10. Vomiting of blood is called?
13. Designed to allow the EMT to treat the most serious, life threatening problems first
17. Abnormally fast rate of breathing, typically >20 respirations per minute Is considered?