

Pediatric Respiratory Care Website

Across

3. Which nebulized mucolytic medication should be given alone
 6. The only organ in the body that can float is
 8. All nebs should be replaced in the morning before each
 10. The ventilator and circuit should be changed once a
 15. All infants receiving this drug will be monitored with pulse oximetry at all times.
 16. Type of mucus thinner
 19. This nebulized medication is for cough, cough variant asthma as determined by ped pulmonologist
 20. Nebulized opioid that has been found to be effective for palliative care.
 22. If you need to convert your patients neb to MDI we have available a medication dosage
 24. Retinopathy of Prematurity
 26. An orders that need to be responded to with in 30min window

28. The INO is placed on the servo i directly on what outlet

29. Used to prevent and treat very serious types of pneumonia in patients that are immunocompromised

30. Anticholinergics are a
 31. This is required to fix equipment

Down

1. TPA is nebulized in what nebulizer
 2. Metaneb gas source must be plugged into the
 4. The actual VT that is being delivered to the pt will be approximately half the amount displayed without this turned on
 5. The ventilator must be in the control mode to access
 7. When a physician orders the initiation of Ped Bronchodilator protocol who will initiate therapy
 9. Patients that are at higher risk for ventilator associated pneumonia

11. Inhaled medications that helps thin the mucus in the airway so you can cough it out of your lungs

12. What test is done to confirm brain death

13. The use of this gas has led to clinical improvement in respiratory distress and reduce work of breathing in obstructive lesions

14. A nebulized medication that is a vasodilator used to treat pulmonary hypertension

17. Neurally Adjusted Ventilatory Assist

18. What noninvasive device safely and effectively clears retained broncho pulmonary secretions ?

21. Extracorporeal Membrae Oxygenation

23. Metaneb orders are a communication order to the RT then the RT orders as

25. Pediatric Acute Asthma Score

27. Nebulized for the treatment of plastic bronchitis