

Peer Mentoring: Tensor, Sling and PPE

Across

3. precaution to use when a client has C. difficile
4. are used to anchor bandage and to terminate them.
5. are used to bandage parts of the body that are fairly uniform in circumference
6. acronym for assessing client before and after applying bandage
8. are the most commonly worn personal protective equipment.

10. must be performed each time gloves are removed

Down

1. must be worn to protect the mucous membranes of your eyes, nose and mouth during these type of procedures.
2. are used to bandage the elbow, knee or ankle because they permit some movement after application
7. precaution to use when a client has influenza
9. placement of the knot in tying the sling