

Performance Management

Across

2. Performance appraisals are conducted to assess an employee or team's performance.
5. What is developed in the Planning stage of the fourth phase?
7. may be defined as a professional relationship where an individual with specific knowledge or skills assists another in the development of their skills and knowledge
9. Individuals that are affected by all the decisions made in the organisation.
10. What activity takes place before the Performance Management process takes place?

Down

1. may be understood as a professional relationship between an experienced person and an inexperienced person.
3. Who is required to communicate the strategic goals to the employees?
4. A good manager should with his/her employees.
6. How many phases are included in the Planning process?
8. Performance management can be defined as the continual organisational