

Name: _____

Date: _____

Persepolis I

Across

- 3. A type of shoes
- 7. An official permission slip that says you can go stay in a specific country for a while
- 10. To describe something as bigger or more than it really is
- 12. Being aware of the situation and how to behave
- 14. Believing that good things will happen
- 15. An amount of money given to a groom by the bride's family in exchange for marrying her

- 16. Believing that our lives are already pre-planned and written down by forces outside of our control, so there's no sense in fighting what happens
- 17. Government workers who control daily business
- 18. People who are put in prison for speaking out against the government

- 5. Holy day
- 6. Someone who doesn't follow the rules and challenges authority
- 8. Getting back at someone for hurting you
- 9. Money
- 11. Chose
- 13. Someone who attacks or uses the threat of violence to get their way

Down

- 1. Believing that bad things will happen
- 2. An explosive weapon that is launched high in the air and falls on its target
- 4. Refusing to believe what you are told without evidence to prove it.

Word Bank

- | | | | | |
|-----------|-------------|------------|-------------------|---------------------|
| skeptical | rebel | visa | Ballistic Missile | Political Prisoners |
| currency | Fatalism | dowry | pessimism | Bureaucrats |
| opted | Espadrilles | exaggerate | Sabbath | circumspect |
| aggressor | Vengeance | optimism | | |