

Name: _____

Date: _____

Personal Protective Equipment

Across

3. Protection from breathing in contaminants.
4. Who must pay and provide PPE with some minor exception per OSHA rules?
7. What does PPE stand for?
10. PPE that helps protect your head.
11. PPE meant to prevent particulates, water, chemicals from entering eyes.

Down

1. Provides a barrier between the skin and the agent of exposure.

2. Knee length overcoat used to protect street clothes and serves as a uniform.
5. Protects toes.
6. Who is the primary person responsible for your safety?
8. What is the acronym for Occupational Safety and Health Administration?
9. Protects from industrial noise.