

Persuasive Techniques

Across

4. Expressing the highest or very high degree of a quality.
7. Three similar things used together in a list
8. Functions as a command, instruction or order.
9. Making the audience feel a particular way using selective vocabulary.

Down

1. Exaggerated language used for effect.

2. A question that implies its own answer.

3. Using "I", "You" and "We" for effect of closeness to the audience

5. Raising a question and then immediately answering for effect.

6. Where there is an opposition or contrast of ideas for effect.

10. A short story about a real incident or person.