

Pharmacology Cross word

Across

3. A tissue hormone that is released in response to viral invasion that blocks viral replication is an....

9. Lack of adequate function of the pituitary; reflected in many endocrine disorders.

10. Which circulating myelocytic leukocytes exact function is not currently understood?

Down

1. Drug that acts in the limbic system and the reticular activating system to make GABA, an inhibitory neurotransmitter, more effective, causing interference with neuron firing; depresses CNS to block the signs and symptoms of anxiety; may cause sedation and hypnosis in higher doses.

2. Excessive calcium levels in the blood.

4. The property of drawing neutrophils to an area is called.

5. A drug used to depress the central nervous system, it prevents signs and symptoms of anxiety

6. The thickening of bony surfaces in response to excess growth hormone after the epiphyseal plates have closed.

7. What tissues play an important part in the cellular defense system?

8. Monocytes or mononuclear phagocytes are also called.