

Name: _____ Date: _____

Pharmacology Terms

- | | |
|--|----------------------|
| 1. substance that produces an allergic response | A. urticaria |
| 2. amount of drug that brings blood concentration rapidly to therapeutic level | B. ceiling effect |
| 3. slightly elevated, red areas on the body surface | C. local effect |
| 4. hives, itching sensation | D. loading dose |
| 5. amount of drug in a patients blood which beneficial effects occur | E. dose |
| 6. action of drug that is confined to a specific part of the body | F. absorption |
| 7. fatty molecule that's important constituent of cell membranes; includes natural oils, waxes, and steroids | G. lipid |
| 8. quantity of drug administrated at one time | H. therapeutic level |
| 9. point which no clinical response occurs with increased dosage of a drug | I. allergen |
| 10. the uptake of essential nutrients and drugs into bloodstream | J. wheals |