

Name: _____

Date: _____

Pharmacology

Across

- 1. placed between gums and inner lining of cheek
- 4. a viscous concentrated solution of a sugar, such as sucrose, in water or other aqueous liquid
- 5. directly onto surface of the skin or to any mucous membrane
- 7. substance which has a physiological effect when ingested or otherwise introduced into the body
- 10. The time required to reduce the plasma concentration of a drug to half of its original value

11. what the body does to the drug

- 13. liquid preparations in which the therapeutic agent and the various excipients are dissolved in the chosen solvent system
- 14. branch of medicine concerned with the uses, effects, and modes of action of drugs
- 15. what the drug does to the body

Down

- 2. medicine enclosed in a relatively stable shell
- 3. commercial trade name for a material or product

6. placed under the tongue to be rapidly absorbed

- 8. Under the skin
- 9. po - swallow or apply topically to the mouth
- 12. A coarse dispersion in which therapeutically active ingredient is dispersed uniformly throughout the external phase