

Pharmacy Phind

Across

4. When blood pressure readings are 180/110 mmHg, but there is no damage to the body's organs. It is known as hypertensive "...".
5. This pathogen also is also known as "Valley Fever" is transmitted via inhalation of contaminated soil
8. The generic name for Xanax
13. This medication is the agent of choice for an active asthma attack
14. This type of medication is used to help lower your cholesterol
16. This infection is most commonly caused by gram negative rods

17. This medication is typically used to treat urinary tract infections

18. This is the most common fungal pathogen in humans

19. What color is warfarin 1 mg

Down

1. This IV medication is given with labor and delivery to prevent seizures in women who have pre-eclampsia

2. This medication is used to treat syphilis

3. Weight gain, fatigue, cold intolerance, periorbital puffiness, are signs and symptoms of what disease state

6. CRASH (conjunctivitis, rash, adenopathy, strawberry tongue, Hands & feet, and burn) is an acronym for "..."
disease primarily occurring in infants and young children

7. This drug is a vitamin K antagonist

9. Administer this for acetaminophen overdose

10. Treatment for opioid overdose

11. Coca-Cola, Pepsi, and Vernor's Ginger Ale were all created by a "..."

12. This person was considered the founding father of pharmacy

15. This cancer medications side effect is remembered by pharmacy students by this saying "I ran to the can"