

Philosophical Roots of Education

Across

1. Rooted in neo-Marxism and postmodernism

2. What is moral and right?

6. Focused on the education; no complete philosophical system offered

9. A philosophy that is highly skeptical of the truth of metanarratives.

10. A philosophy which asserts that reality consists of an objective order of objects that, though they are external, can be known by humans through their senses and power of abstraction.

12. Wide-ranging, systematic, complete, global

13. A philosophy which asserts that reality is spiritual, intellectual, and nonmaterial.

14. Rooted in pragmatism.

15. What is knowledge based on?

Down

3. Rooted in realism.

4. A philosophy that encourages individuals to define themselves to define themselves by making significant personal choices

5. Rooted in realism and idealism

7. A philosophy that assesses the validity of ideas by acting on and testing them; the consequences of such action determines an idea's viability. Also known as experimentalism

8. What is real?

11. How can we reason?