

Photography Lingo

Across

- 4. dividing an image into tonal sections.
- 6. the person taking photos
- 8. an optical lens or assembly of lenses used in conjunction with a camera body
- 11. the difference between the darkest part and the lightest Part of an image
- 12. the aperture opening of a camera lens

- 13. apparent streaking of moving objects in a photo
- 14. an optical lens or assembly of lenses used in conjunction with a camera body
- 15. film with a high sensitivity to light

Down

- 1. unexpected result of a malfunction

- 2. a simple flat piece of material with a reflective surface
- 3. minimizing the size of bytes of a graphics file without degrading the quality
- 5. the camera body itself
- 7. a continuous flashing light
- 9. smallest single component of a digital image
- 10. an electronic device that produces a flash of light.

Word Bank

- | | | | | |
|--------|----------|-------------|---------|---------------|
| lens | flash | Fstops | shooter | decompression |
| JPG | pixel | strobe | glitch | dynamic range |
| zoning | movement | bounce card | body | fast film |