

Photography in Society

Across

2. Everything that is a part of our constructed, physical environment, including technology.
3. Photography helps preserve ___.
5. How philosophers are able to have a realistic view of life and use various ideologies in their research and findings.
7. How many photos are uploaded every minute?
8. Taking into account the differences across cultures without passing judgement or assigning value.

9. The philosopher that predicted that photography would be lacking originality.

10. Doubt, confusion, or anxiety arising from immersion in an unfamiliar culture.

Down

1. The theory that various social institutions and processes in society exist to serve some important function to keep society running.

4. Photographers use their cameras as instruments of ___.

6. Photos use to persuade a specific brand.

Word Bank

Culture

Culture shock

Cultural relativism

Functionalism

Kierkegaard

History

Material culture

Change

Billboards

Millions