

Places You Should Visit In Italy

Across

- 3. The largest church in Italy---the 3rd largest in the world
- 8. A beautiful stalagmite sea cave with stalagmites and stalagmites lit with a romantic glow beings only a small amount of light can enter the cavern
- 9. Italy's capital
- 10. The worlds most haunted island
- 11. The town was once submerged in volcanic ash and lava in effect to a volcanic eruption but after all the ash blew/wore away the town was left untouched

- 12. The streets are canals that contain water instead of asphalt
- 14. The leaning tower of _____

- 15. Old seaside villages cling to steep terraces

Down

- 1. A human powered playground/amusement park
- 2. The largest man made waterfall in the world
- 4. The chapel of the dead
- 5. An illuminated, blue reflected sea cave on the coast of the island of Capri

- 6. A competitive barrel race through the city has been held on the last Sunday of August since the 14th century

- 7. A large field with a HUMONGOUS pink plush bunny laying in the middle

- 13. Where the setting for Shake'spears "Romeo and Juliet" took place